

Fifth Grade News

Mrs. Tavarez's Class

January 30, 2012

Catholic Schools Week

This week, as you know, is Catholic Schools Week. Here is a list of things that will be happening:

Tuesday: Wear a Pair/Share a Pair – Students may wear their pajamas to school today if they bring a pair to donate as well.

Sundaes with Father at lunch.

Wednesday: Crazy Hat Day/ Region B Mass – 4th and 5th grade will be attending Mass this day. Mass uniforms are required and they may wear their hats before and after Mass.

Thursday: Crazy Sock Day – students may wear crazy or mismatched socks.

Friday: Catholic Bingo

News

Friday Mass: Please make sure to arrive early on Friday; 7:55am at the latest. If you arrive late please escort your child to the church. Remember students must wear Mass uniforms! Students out of Mass uniform will be required to wear their full Mass uniform Monday as well.

Curriculum News

Math: We will continue working with shapes. Students will be learning about basic geometric ideas, measuring and classifying angles, polygons, triangles, and quadrilaterals. The math test will be Thursday, February 2.

Social Studies: Students continue to learn the formation of the Constitution of the United States. The test for chapter 11 will be on Tuesday, February 7th.

L.A.: Students will begin learning about prepositions. This section will include prepositional phrases, coordinating and subordinating conjunctions, and interjections.

Religion: Students will learn about how God saves us. They will have a test on Chapter 13 on Friday.

Science: Students will continue learning about the earth's changing surface. In this section there will be many hands-on activities/experiments.

Reading: Students will continue working on activities surrounding Esperanza Rising. This week we will discuss some themes of the book as well as begin their last writing assignment. They also have their journal projects due this Wednesday.

Dates to Remember

Friday, February 3 – 8 am Mass

Monday, February 6 – 2:15
Dismissal/Choir

Friday, February 10 – 8 am
Mass/Current Family Registration
Packets due/Progress Reports

Have a Great Week!!!
small school. BIG DIFFERENCE.